

REPORT ON SASH 2022 AIIMS BHUBANESHWAR

Annual National Conference on Safe and Sustainable Hospitals (SASH) 2022 was conducted at AIIMS Bhubaneswar on 24th and 25th of September 2022, with the theme- “Hospitals Are More Than a Patient Care – The Need for Qualified Hospital Administrators”

The Day 1 of National conference on hospital administration began with a morning scientific session with the theme Design Disruption: New Age Hospital Architecture By Mr. Curtis Laitinen, Associate Director, Healthcare, AECOM, US. Followed by other scientific session on HER implementation in Indian healthcare and Healthcare logistics. After the very informative morning scientific session, the program was officially inaugurated by Shri Naba Kishore Das The Health Minister Of Odisha with honorable AHA Dignitaries.

The day1 covered few scientific sessions including; Money matters!!-Empowering administrator’s and physicians with financial literacy, quality and patient safety- perspectives, hospital infection control: how covid -19 changed healthcare? The day 1 concluded with poster presentation.

The day 2 included scientific sessions and oral paper presentations. Day 2 began with scientific session addressing Medico Legal Update: The Changing Healthcare Environment in India. followed by human resource management- current trends. The afternoon session covered healthcare Technology trends and support systems and scientific oral paper presentation. Dignitaries from different colleges all over India participated to name few AIIMS of different states, JSS MD hospital administration, and DHSMS, JSSAHER.

Representing Department of Health System Management Studies (DHSMS), JSSAHER, our PhD scholar Dr. Shalini and MBA – Hospital Administration students, Mr. Ajmal, Mr. Tince and Mr. Nazeem participated in poster and oral paper presentation events. With the support of Dr. Mamatha H.K., HOD, DHSMS, under the guidance of Dr. Kanakavalli K Kundury, Students won the 1st and the 2nd best oral paper presentation awards respectively.

The conference ended with panel discussion on theme, followed by valedictory function.

